Faith Vesper Arts

Dr. Lorraine Miller - Organ Recital

Dr. Lorraine Miller is one of the Valley's most accomplished and popular organists. She was awarded a Doctor of Musical Arts Degree from the University of Michigan and served there as a graduate teaching assistant in music theory. She has since been awarded numerous fellowships and scholarships. Lorraine has been a church organist since she was eight, and is honored to be the Organist at Faith Presbyterian Church and to serve with Dale McCurdy, Director of Music.

Sunday, November 1st at 3 p.m.

West Valley Symphony - Classical Favorites

Maestro Cal Steward Kellogg, Conductor

Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 4 in A Major
"The Italian"

Beethoven: Symphony No. 3 in E Flat-Major
"The Eroica"

The Orchestra presents two powerful symphonies in celebration of the Two-Hundredth Anniversary of the birth of Felix Mendelssohn.

Sunday, November 8th at 3 p.m.

Faith Vesper Arts - The Gliadkovsky Piano Trio

Kirill and Anna Gliadkovsky who have performed several times previously on the Vesper Arts Series, are joined by their eleven-year old daughter, Anastasia. This three-piano concert of favorite Classical and Patriotic pieces, will feature music from Brahms to Cohen. Anna and Kirill studied at the most prestigious musical institutions in Russia, and have played solo as well as orchestral concerts throughout the United States and Russia. Kirill is head of the piano area at Southern Utah University, and Anna is also on the piano faculty at SUU.

This concert is in honor and memory of Dayton Grafman, Steinway Artist, representative and dear friend, who assisted Faith Church in acquiring the two Steinway pianos being played in today's concert. Dayton was responsible for introducing Kirill and Anna to the Faith Vesper Arts Program.

Monday, November 9th at 7.30 p.m.

Chamber Music West - Brentano String Quartet

Named for Antonie Brentano, considered by scholars to be Beethoven's "Immortal Beloved", the Brentano String Quartet performs not only the entire two-century range of the standard quartet repertoire, but new music as well. Founded in 1912, the deeply praised Brentano String Quartet has performed on stages worldwide from Carnegie Hall and Alice Tully Hall in New York to the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam and Sydney Opera House.

Saturday, December 5th at 2 p.m. & 4 p.m.

Faith Vesper Arts

Amahl and the Night Visitors by Menotti

The Faith Presbyterian Church Music Department joins with the Vesper Arts Series to present the acclaimed Opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors". Under the direction of Dale McCurdy, this story of the miraculous healing of young Amahl will be told. This beloved piece is an internationally performed favorite. Ticketed event: Go to amahlphoenix.com for more information.

Chamber Music West

Amelia Piano Trio and Robert Spring

Isaac Stern, after hearing the Amelia Piano Trio perform, became a mentor, presenting the ensemble's Carnegie Hall debut. Of that performance, Strad Magazine wrote, "Its careful attention to balance, tonal beauty and teamwork was exemplary."

Robert Spring, Clarinet, the Evelyn Smith Professor of Music in Clarinet at Arizona State University, has performed as a recitalist and soloist with symphony orchestras and wind bands in the United States and around the world.

Sunday, February 21st at 3 p.m.

Faith Vesper Arts - The Legacy Gospel Men's Quartet

This Denver-based ensemble excites audiences wherever they perform. Singing favorite music of the church, their voices bring a message of joy.

Monday, March 8th at 7:30 p.m.

Chamber Music West - Chee-Yun, Violinist

Violinist Chee-Yun's flawless technique, dazzling tone and compelling artistry have enraptured audiences on five continents. Performing regularly with the world's foremost orchestras, she made her first public performance in her native Korea at age 8, and today performs on a 1708 Stradivarius on loan to her from Samsung.

Monday, March 29th at 7:30 p.m.

Chamber Music West - Joyce Yang, Pianist

A Silver Medalist at the 2005 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition at age 19, Joyce Yang made her New York Philharmonic debut the next year with Lorin Maazel at Avery Fisher Hall, after appearing with the Philadelphia Orchestra, Chicago Symphony and the National Symphony at the Kennedy Center. This remarkable artist also was featured in 'In the Heart of Music', the film documentary about the Van Cliburn competition.

Be Our Guests!

Events are presented in the Sanctuary.

Faith Presbyterian Church, founded in 1973, began with a commitment to local needs and continues a tradition to the community. Funding for the Vesper Arts Series comes through a generous and deeply appreciated gift from the late Cleo Roberts. Faith Church supplements that gift and concert-goers are provided the opportunity to participate through donation at the door. Faith members, friends and the community are invited to attend. If you are looking for a church home, please contact the church office at 623-974-3611 for more information.
