Faith Drama Group will be on the front burner through Summer heat.

While many at Faith Church will be off to cooler climes or distant homes, Faith's Drama Group will be forging ahead preparing for the Fall. So, when it's hot outdoors we're hoping all who may be interested will cool off with us and see what all the fun is about.

We Meet on the first Friday of every month at 9:30 a.m. in the Iona Room

After a recent meeting, Bonnie Ruf and Carol Rankin, who were working at the front office desk, met us with, "From the sounds of it, you are having way too much fun in there."

If success is measured in camaraderie and caring, the Faith Drama Group is a huge success! As we've developed programs we've drawn close to each other, enjoyed laughs together and become caring friends.

We're told laughter is high on the health meter. None of us are professionals, just amateurs who get a kick out of expressing their faith in ways that bring pleasure to the performers and we hope our audience. We started the group because our Presbyterian Women's Moderator, Millie DeJong had an idea. That idea is growing. Exactly where we will go we're not sure but the Drama Group has signed on for the ride. We hope others will join us. Most performances need people behind the scenes, idea generators for skits, scenery, costumes, props. Those few on stage need a big "back stage" support crew. So, there's room for all talents. Come on in; the water's fine!

May 26, 2010, was our first road show. A presentation of the Fellowship of the Least Coin found several members: Audrey Henigman, Happy Sargol, Phyllis Williams, and Connie Young answering an invitation from the Presbyterian Women of First Presbyterian Church in Sun City. Who knows what's next? Why not join us and see for yourselves? The first Friday of each month, 9:30 a.m. in the Iona Room, hope to greet you there!!
