"Dick and Tom Van Arsdale"

They will share some stories about their careers in basketball and their relationship to Pastor Dave.

Dick and Tom Van Arsdale are identical twins, both of them played professional basketball in the NBA. Richard Albert (Dick) Van Arsdale, the 6'5" guard played for the New York Knicks from 1965-1968, and then from 1968-1977 for the Phoenix Suns. In 1966, he was chosen to be part of the NBA All-Rookie Team, along with his twin brother Tom. Dick was a three-time All-Star NBA player. He earned the nickname "the original Sun," and he became the Phoenix Suns' manager and head coach for a brief period in 1987. Thomas Arthur (Tom) Van Arsdale, also a 6'5" guard and small forward, ended up playing pro-basketball for no fewer than six teams over twelve seasons, including the Detroit Pistons, Kansas City-Omaha Kings, Cincinnati Royals, Atlanta Hawks, Philadelphia 76ers, and the Phoenix Suns. Tom was a three-time NBA All-Star.

"Arizona Rick," the Cowboy Balloon Artist

Arizona Rick has been a story-teller in the libraries for years. He tells classic stories told in a way NO one else in Arizona can . . . with the help of balloons!

We are not talking about one balloon poodle here, these are the most fantastic creations you have ever seen. Also, have you ever seen a full grown man inside a balloon? Great fun!

Tickets for Thursdays@Faith events will be on sale two Sundays prior to the event and at the reception desk during the week. We invite all who attend Thursdays@Faith to bring their own place settings. If you are unable to do so, place settings will be provided.
